After some meters you will find a descent on your left side. Go down and you are in Via della Lungara 19.

- Please find at the following link on the website of the public transportation all the buses lines arriving to Piazza Venezia
<http://www.atac.roma.it/index.asp?p=2#top>
- Please note that Rome has only two lines of subways (due to all the ancient roman ruins underground!) and none of them arrives to Piazza Venezia. Please find at this link a map. <http://www.rome.info/metro/>
Anyway the best subway stop to get down is Termini Train Station (both line A and B arrive there), Piazza di Spagna (Line A) and Colosseo (line B).
- From the stop Colosseo you can take a walk until the conference venue of the townhall walking. Get out from the metro station turn to your right and walk trough via dei Fori Imperiali. Then you will arrive to Piazza Venezia. Just go around the big white monument in the middle of the city and turn left. There you will see to stairs. The first one lead you to a church the second one will lead you to the square of the Campidoglio – Town Hall. If you don't want to walk you can:
